

Fiji is stepping up regional climate talks after the United Nations' top court agreed to rule on countries' legal duties to fight climate change. Prime Minister Sitiveni Rabuka said Fiji was ...

Europe's energy future is being shaped by a race to diversify sources and embrace renewables, fueled by the urgency of climate change and geopolitical instability. Germany, Italy, and ...

The UN's top court has said countries could be in violation of international law if they fail to take measures to protect the planet from climate change, and nations harmed by its effects could ...

And the cause is overwhelmingly human. This article breaks down the difference between natural and human causes of climate change, how scientists tell them apart, and why understanding ...

Matthias Binder is a skilled author and digital storyteller with a focus on travel journalism, environmental issues, and modern home design. With a background in communications and a ...

The EU's climate service has established that 2024 was Europe's, and the world's, warmest year since measurements began. According to research, heatwaves will become more frequent and ...

The Hague, July 23 (UNI) The International Court of Justice (ICJ) today delivered its advisory opinion on the legal obligations of states concerning climate change, following a request from ...

Serbia has recently adopted plans and strategies to combat climate change and environmental pollution, but these documents remain vague and lack concrete actions, with revisions already ...

With a global turn to greener technologies in efforts to tame climate change, electric vehicles (EVs) are high in demand, even despite their recent slowdown. Concurrently, there is soaring ...

Scientists warn that climate change is exacerbating the frequency and intensity of heat and dryness in parts of Europe, making the region more vulnerable to health impacts and wildfires.

Facing drought and record heat, raspberry farmers in western Serbia are warning of the worst season in decades for one of the world's largest exporters of the fruit. Under the scorching ...

With financial support from the European Union and Switzerland, the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) is launching a Public Call for the scale-up of green investment projects as part of the project EU for the ...

Climate change serbia

FIFA has sanctioned Serbia with a partial stadium closure when they host England in a World Cup qualifier next month following racist behaviour by some of their fans during the 3-0 home win ...

Serbian state-owned power utility Elektroprivreda Srbije, EPS, connected its first larger photovoltaic unit to the grid. The new solar power plant is called Petka and it has a 10 MW grid ...

Climate change serbia

Web: <https://ichipcorp.co.za>

