

Home energy assessment

The Home Energy Assessment is a mandatory part of the program. It provides useful information about your home's energy performance that will help you make informed, decisions when operating, renovating or purchasing a home.

This program involves a whole-home energy assessment with targeted recommendations. The Home Appliance Rebates (HEAR) program is for low- and moderate-income households to purchase energy efficient equipment.

Energy Impact Partners (EIP) is a collaborative strategic investment firm that invests in companies optimizing energy consumption and improving sustainable energy generation. Through close collaboration with its strategic ...

Nationwide House Energy Rating Scheme (NatHERS) Australian Government and state and territory governments. NatHERS is a star rating system (out of 10) that rates the energy efficiency of a home, based on its design.

Dear Eartha, my neighbors told me they did an energy efficiency project that helped them save money last winter. How can I do the same thing at my house? If you've ever struggled with high...

Basic energy-efficiency practices, like caulking around windows and doors, turning off lights when you leave the room, and using a programmable thermostat, are great ways to start saving. If you'd like to have an in-depth ...

A BER rating grades the energy efficiency of a home on a scale of A to G with A representing the most energy efficient and G the least. A BER certificate costs EUR125 and the evaluation of your home can be carried out by ...

Home energy assessment

Home energy assessment

